

Romania (Bucharest) - Interreg Europe: Green eDIH

Green eDIH is a digital innovation hub based in Bucharest, Romania, which supports the development of the economy through green technologies, dealing in particular with: activities and projects concerning digitization through green technology, digital innovation, cyber security, Artificial Intelligence, Intelligent Transport Systems, High Performance Computing, Aeronautical Research, Smart Cities, Big Data, is looking for partners to participate in the Interreg Europe program.

One of the main objectives of Green eDIH is to support and accelerate innovation through green digital technologies.

In this context, Green eDIH has created and wanted to constantly develop 5 Digital Platforms that will digitally and fully cover all the main functions of an eDIH as a green digital innovation hub:

- Green Tech Academy digital platform
- Green Tech Network digital platform
- Green Tech Arena digital platform
- program: green technology policies
- program: green technology projects
-

Research recipients

Green eDIH seeks Associations, Clusters, Universities, research centers, companies, local administrations and national authorities and any entity that can add value for further supervision and development efficiency, facilitating access to all the resources necessary to implement digital transformation.

Information

Green eDIH

email: is@dih.green